Week 9 Race Report

A brave group of skiers fought tough conditions as snow and winds kicked up just in time for the start of the skate race. Daniel Gjertson would once again get a gap on the field to win yet again. Conditions further degraded for the classic race as the snow really began to drift over the course filling the tracks and covering the skate deck. In a triumph against the elements, Andrew McIntyre took home the classic win in a time of 19:10.
