

Elm Creek XC Ski Series – Race Report

February 13th, 2019

More fresh snow awaited skiers for the February 13th Elm Creek races. It was a small field of 8 skaters and 7 classic skiers. However, everyone was able to take advantage of the full 5K lit loop of Valley and Northern Lights. Roddy McEwan took a double-header with the top spot in the men's field of both races, with his brother Declan the second place male skater, followed by Doug Scott. Artie Huber double-poled his way to a second-place men's classic finish, with Declan Rodefeld in third. For the women, regular Anna Haugen took top podium spot in skate. Maria Hauer again took the honors in the classic women's field, with the intrepid Beth Markhart following in second. Next week is a recreational race followed by series awards along with some sweets and snacks. Founder Melinda Silbernack will be on hand to help present awards.
